Threatened Intervention of European Powers.

Our dispatches this afternoon are unusually important. A special London dispatch to the New York Tribune, dated May 11th, declares that the initial steps have been taken for an alliance, offensive and defensive, between England, France and Spain against the United States-the rejection of the Alabama treaty, the tone of Mr. Sumuer's speech, the alleged filibustering tendencies of Gen. Grant's administration and the reported connivance at expeditions from the United States against Cuba, being made the pretexts for of their propensities for biting at things a necessity for such alliance.

Personal About the Speeds To the Editor of the Evening Express:

To the Editor of the Evening Express:

The report in your yesterday's issue of the meeting held at the court-house on Saturday night does me injustice and is incorrect in several particulars. All in the world I said in regard to any of the "Speed family" was that I had called on the lauthor of the card published in an evening paper several days since, signed "A Mutton Head," and he told me he had obtained the facts for his communication from Dr. Speed, and written it at Dr. Speed's request; and upon this I commented af some little length in probably severe but certainly in respectful language. I do not hesitate to say that I was opposed to Dr. Speed's reappointment, but this nor anything else could induce me be heap upon the "family" the abuse attributed to me by your report. My allusion to Gen. Boyle also was made in respectful ianguage, and net as your report says. The publication of this card will much oblige,

To the Editor of the Evening Express Observing an article published on yesterday, under the signature "Ramrod," which makes an unwarranted attack on Hon. James Speed, I destre to say that for myself, as a member of the Republican party, I wholly disapprove of said ar-licle. The soldiers never had a better friend than James Speed, and not one who was worthy was ever turned away by him without human consideration of his case. C. W. ERDMAN.

The Sinking Fund and the Position of Mr. Post.

To the Editor of the Evening Express: A communication in the Co urier-Journal this morning by evideratly a warm riend of Mr. Posty overleaps its mark. It is the same kind of argument that the Radicals have always used—an appeal to the noted magnanimity of Dernoerats, oftn successful and always aloused! We have the fact staring all around us that, no matter how capable, honest and unimpeachable a man may be, if he is a Demorat, he is as firmly and contemptuously ostracised as if howas an inhabitant of a foreign country.

any such threat. The Commissioners committed a take; this the community feels, and it is believed that the Commissioners themselves so keenly feel it that they will be grateful for an opportunity given them by the Aldermen for a reconsideration of the matter. Mr. Post may be a very capable man; but there are quite a number of Democrats equally capable and equally deserving. It has been rumored for days that Mr. Post would decline. It would be graceful and honorable in lain to do so. If he does not, the community expect be Alderiaea to do their duty.

COSTELLO AND WARREN.

The Arrival of the Fenian Patriots in New York—Warm Reception Extend-ed to Warren and Contello—tharac-teristic Letter from George Francis Train—Interviews with the Distin-guished Irish Liberators.

Col. Wm. J. Nagle, erstwhile their fellow-prisoner, met them at the Battery when they emphatically that the Spanish Minister has landed, and Geo. Francis Train was there

WELCOME TO WARREN AND COSTELLO. 1384 MADISON AVENCE.

NEW YORK, May 7, 1869. DEAR AMERICANS: You were not, but are now. Am just off at 9 this morning;

You have done my thag great service; you have made your mark in history; America cannot forget you, Ireland will not. Your names will call to mind nat-uralized citizenship in American flunkey-Never before did men behave more braves; they live like men; they suffer like martyrs. God bless them, and God save martyrs. God bless them, and God save Ireland. We must break open Burke's door, and Halpin, Mackay, Rosa, Roan-tree and McCafferty. They are all citizens: out with them, or down goes the British consulate in New York. Let us dress up as Mohawk Indians, and throw overboard the tea. If Grant is not in the English ring, we shall have England on her knees. May God have mercy on her de old soul. My private secretary will hand you this with $65 for pocket moner—half proceeds of Jersey ('ity lecture. Hail to the Chief! Boys of New York, give these men of the age a Coud Mille Fuil-the.

GEO. FRANCIS TRAIN.
After this formal ceremony the party went to Sweeney's Hotel, where the pa-triots will tarry a while. The Fenian Brotherhood here are making extensive preparations to give them a fetting recep-tion, and the Common Council has accept ed an invitation to unite in any demonstration that may be made in their honor. Had they been here on St. Patrick's day, their reception would have been the crowning glory of that occasion. But that which is to come will not be the less imposing.

THE ARREST AND IMPRISONMENT.
The readers of the Sun may remember that these gentlemen were arrested about two years ago the former in Youghal, begin again, as we have it from au official county Cork, Ireland, and the latter in source that the various headquarters for enlistment are to be transferred from place to overthrow the British Crown and Govto place, if necessary, to evade the obser-ernment. Our readers will also remember sworn to by the British spies, Congdon and Costello. But these fellows could not trace any treasonable acts or sayings of Warren and Costello here any nearer the time of arrest than eight months pre-The doubt was then raised whether vious. or not these men had eeased all connec tion with the American Feuians in the interim. The prison discipline was most rigorusly enforced upon both Warren and Costello, and the efforts of the Governors, Wardens and keepers, and of all the othcials, high and low, with two or three exceptions, were directed to the breaking down of their spirits. But in this the government has failed as lamentably as in its effort to crush out the Fenian Brotherhood. Their heads were shaved, and they had to don the felon's garb, and break stones, weed gardens, scrub floors and nature. But to secure even this paltry privilege they should have three months record free from any reports of misconduct or insubordination. A small half sheet of note paper was then given them. On one side it contained printed regula-tions and directions about the manner and matter of writing both to the prisoner and his friends to insure its transmission between them.

Mr. Costello spent three days and nights in a death cell, and, "My God!" he remarked to a reporter last night, wished and prayed the Lord would take me off from such misery.' Last night of few friends who had learned of the arrival of the patriots, called and spent a few hours with them, reciting experiences of war life in America and of prison life in Great Britain. Among these "I am sorry for Mr. Jay," replied the President; "but I made up my mind to offer the Austriau mission to Mr. William Coll. Finally the great event was Bryant would refuse the place, it occurred consummated, and, without receiving any ee, the good Bishop returned to his labors He was, of course, somewhat surprised that he was not at least reimbursed for his expenses of travel and residence at the capital. Testimony of a Well-known Physician.

The following letter is from a physician a large practice in the city, and whose experience with chills has been unusually extensive. It is rarely any medicine has the merit to induce such a testimoulal as this in behalf of Wintersmith's Improved Chill Cure: Louisville, Ky., June 20, 1968.

could get no relle; for more than two weeks at a time, nithough she had employed some of the best physicians in the city, and had taken every patent medicine she could hear of. When I saw her she was very low, suffering with irritable stomach, diarrhea, swelling of the limbs, and a dreadful cough. I prescribed your excellent medicine in half money for four days, which, to my astonishment, performed a permanent cure. She has not had a chill nor a sign of one since, and is now stout and well. I recommend it most cheerfully to all afflicted with that aggravating diease—the chills—as a safe and sure cure.

Yours, truly,
G. S. WHIPPLE, M. D. P. S.-I have used it in a number of eases since, and it has invariably performed a permanent cure. I have never seen anything equal it, although I have been prescribing for he chills for twenty years.
